

“McDermott has, from page one, a powerful and clear storytelling voice, and a strong control over his language. You leave the book utterly invested in all the people you’ve just met.”

WE LEAVE TOGETHER

J. M. McDERMOTT

In a city where the rich stage decadent parties as the poor suffer in squalor, where assassins prowl and king’s men keep order with truncheons and force, where gangs of children run like dogs and addicts die in the streets, a demonic strain has taken hold. The shape shifting priestess and priest of Erin have come to Dogsland stalking a fugitive, half-breed Senta Rachel Nolander, and plot to burn her to cleanse the world of her demon-tainted blood. Led ever onward by Rachel’s corrupted lover’s crying skull, Erin’s agents seek their hapless quarry, a frightened girl guided by one promise, one hope, one prayer... We Leave Together.

“Dark, moving, and unique.”

—Felix Gilman, author of The Half-Made World

“Readers will still find Dogsland a grittily imagined fantasy world, with a personality as vivid as any of its residents.”

—Publishers Weekly
